The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Tuesday July 10, to Thursday July 12, 1792.

Whitehall, July 12.

THE following Addreſs of the Biſhop of London, the Dean and Chapter of St. Paul's, and the Clergy of the Cities of London and Weſtminſter, has been preſented to His Majeſty by the Right Reverend the Lord Biſhop of London, attended by the Reverend Dr. Jeffreys, Canon Reſidentiary of St. Paul's, Dr. Bell, Prebendary of Weſtminſter, Dr. Bingham, Archdeacon of London, Dr. Hamilton, Archdeacon of Colcheſter, Mr. Pott, Archdeacon of St. Alban's, and ſeveral of the Clergy, being introduced by the Marquis of Saliſbury, Lord Chamberlain of His Majeſty's Houſehold.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Biſhop of London, the Dean and Chapter of St. Paul's, and the Clergy of the Cities of London and Weſtminſter, entreat Permiſſion to approach your Royal Preſence with Sentiments of the warmeſt Gratitude for your Majeſty's late Proclamation againſt the many wicked and ſeditious Publications which have ſo recently diſgraced and diſturbed this Country. It affords us, Sir, an additional and a ſtriking Proof of that paternal Care and Solicitude which your Majeſty has conſtantly manifeſted for the Preſervation of the Conſtitution, and the Peace and Welfare of your People.

Moſt firmly attached, as we are, to our admirable and envied Form of Government, and fully ſenſible of all it's Excellencies, as well as of your Majeſty's juſt and mild Adminiſtration of it, we are anxious to expreſs, in the moſt public Manner and in the moſt pointed Terms, our unqualified Abhorrence of all thoſe bold and undiſguiſed Attempts that have been made, and are daily making in various Ways, to ſhake and ſubvert this our venerable Conſtitution, which the Experience of Ages has ſhown to be the moſt ſolid Foundation of National Happineſs and Proſperity.

We can never, Sir, conſent to ſacrifice this approved and long-eſtabliſhed Syſtem of Civil and Eccleſiaſtical Polity to the wild, chimerical and impracticable Theories of viſionary Projectors; Theories, which are not only ſubverſive of all good Government, but calculated to diſſolve the moſt ſacred Bonds of Society, and to entail on this happy Kingdom everlaſting Diſſenſion, Anarchy and Confuſion.

We truſt, however, that your Majeſty's well-timed and vigorous Exertions, (aided as they have been by the general and cordial Concurrence of both Houſes of Parliament) will effectually counteract the malignant Deſigns of factious and turbulent Men; and we beg Leave to aſſure your Majeſty that we ſhall, with the utmoſt Zeal and Fidelity, contribute our Parts towards this moſt deſirable End. We deem it, Sir, to be our indiſpenſable Duty, as Miniſters of the Goſpel of Chriſt, to inſpire all thoſe who are committed to our Care in the Two great capital Cities of your Majeſty's Dominions with that Love of Peace, of Order, of Concord, of Quietneſs, of Obedience to Magiſtrates, of dutiful Submiſſion to all lawful Authority, which our holy Religion moſt peremptorily enjoins, and without which it will be impoſſible to preſerve the Liberty, the Tranquillity, the Security we now enjoy, and to tranſmit thoſe Bleſſings (as we hope to do) unimpaired to our lateſt Poſterity.

It is, Sir, and ever will be, our moſt ardent Prayer to Heaven, that your Majeſty may long, very long, continue on the Throne of theſe Kingdoms, the Father of your People, the Guardian of our Laws, the Protector of our Freedom, and the firm Defender of all our Rights, Civil and Religious (as confirmed to us by the Glorious Revolution) againſt that intemperate and dangerous Spirit of Innovation, which ſeeks to involve them and us, and every Thing that is dear to us, in one common Ruin.

To which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to return the following moſt Gracious Anſwer:

I Have great Satisfaction in receiving from this learned and reſpectable Body an Addreſs ſo expreſſive of their Loyalty to Me, and of their Attachment to the Conſtitution; and I rely on their continuing to inculcate inculcate and maintain among My Subjects in this Metropolis that Love of Peace and Order, and that Submiſſion to the Laws, which our holy Religion preſcribes, and which muſt be the Means of preſerving to them the Liberties and Advantages they enjoy, and of tranſmitting them, unimpaired, to their Poſterity.

They were all received very graciouſly, and had the Honor to kiſs His Majeſty's Hand.

The following Addreſs of the Nobility, Gentry, Clergy, Freeholders, and Inhabitants of the County of Suſſex has, been preſented to the King by the Right Honorable Thomas Pelham, one of the Repreſentatives in Parliament for that County, being introduced by the Lord of His Majeſty's Bedchamber in Waiting: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Nobility, Gentry, Clergy, Freeholders, and Inhabitants of the County of Suſſex.

WE, your Majeſty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Nobility, Gentry, Clergy, Freeholders, and Inhabitants of the County of Suſſex, highly ſenſible of the Happineſs and Freedom which we enjoy under your Majeſty's mild and auſpicious Government, beg Leave to offer our grateful Thanks for the late Proof of your Royal Vigilance and Attention to preſerve the Peace and good Order of this Kingdom by iſſuing your gracious Proclamation. It is with Concern that we have ſeen the Attempts of wicked and miſguided Perſons to diſturb the Tranquillity which prevails in this moſt favored Country; Attempts which your Majeſty's paternal Care and Solicitude for the Public Welfare, ſeconded by the Zeal and Attachment of an affectionate People, have moſt ſeaſonably, and, we are perſuaded, moſt effectually tended to defeat. We venerate, and will carefully cheriſh, the true and genuine Freedom, both Civil and Religious, with which we are bleſſed, and which is ſecured to us by our own excellent Conſtitution; a Conſtitution which has long been the juſt Object of Pride to every good Engliſhman, and the Admiration of the wiſeſt Foreigners. Under this Syſtem of Laws, which has the infallible Teſt of Experience for it's Sanction, we are determined to continue, and we truſt that Providence will grant to your Majeſty, as the Inſtrument for preſerving to us the Happineſs we enjoy, a long, a quiet, and a proſperous Reign.

Edm. Woods, Sheriff.

The following Addreſs of the Nobility, Gentry, Clergy, Freeholders and other Inhabitants of the County of Norfolk has been preſented to the King by Sir John Wodehouſe, one of the Repreſentatives in Parliament for that County, being introduced by the Lord of His Majeſty's Bedchamber in Waiting: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Nobility, Gentry, Clergy, Freeholders and other Inhabitants of the County of Norfolk, beg Leave to return our grateful Thanks for the gracious Proclamation which your Majeſty has been pleaſed to iſſue, for the Purpoſe of defeating the artful and ſeditious Means that have of late been uſed to leſſen the Attachment of your Subjects to our excellent Conſtitution, and to induce them to prefer new and ſpeculative Forms of Government to that moſt admirable one which was eſtabliſhed at the Revolution, and which has been approved by the happy Experience of above a Century.

However wild and extravagant theſe Theories are, we cannot but conſider them as tending to miſlead and inflame the People; and we therefore, as dutiful Subjects, grateful for the Happineſs we enjoy under your Majeſty's mild and auſpicious Government, aſſure your Majeſty, that we will exert ourſelves with Zeal and Vigilance in our reſpective Situations to promote and enforce Obedience to the Laws, and to carry into Effect the ſalutary Purpoſes of your Majeſty's Proclamation.

The following Addreſs of the Freeholders and Inhabitants of Cambridgeſhire, has been preſented to the King by the Sheriff and Repreſentatives in Parliament for that County, being introduced by the Lord of His Majeſty's Bedchamber in Waiting: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Freeholders and Inhabitants of Cambridgeſhire, deſire to return our moſt hearty Thanks to your Majeſty, for a freſh Inſtance of your Majeſty's unceaſing and affectionate Attention to the Welfare and Tranquillity of your People, manifeſted in the late moſt ſeaſonable Proclamation.

We are attached upon Principle and from Experience to our King and Conſtitution, the latter of which, uniting all the Bleſſings of Liberty and Order, enſures to every Man who obeys the Law, the moſt perfect and impartial Security for his Perſon and Property; and the former has, through a long Reign, juſtly endeared himſelf to his People by the uniform Exerciſe of the mild and benefcent Virtues. Impreſſed with theſe Sentiments, we have obſerved with ſerious Grief and Indignation Libels of the moſt ſcandalous and ſeditious Nature, outraging every Principle dear to Engliſhmen, induſtriouſly diſſeminated throughout the Country. We view with Abhorrence all ſuch Proceedings, and beg Leave to aſſure your Majeſty of our moſt zealous Attachment to your Majeſty's Perſon and Family, and to our Conſtitution as ſettled at the Glorious Revolution, being convinced that nothing but the free Syſtem which was then eſtabliſhed could have raiſed this Country to that State of Proſperity which it now enjoys, or could have enabled it to reſiſt with Succeſs the formidable Attacks, to which at different Periods it has been expoſed, from the Envy and Intrigues of arbitrary Governments. And as we are alſo convinced, that the Maintenance of internal Peace and Tranquillity is eſſentially neceſſary to the Continuance of our Happineſs, and that there is no Claſs of your Majeſty's Subjects which is not concerned in the Preſervation of Public Order, and bound by every Tie both of Duty and Intereſt to preſerve it, we further beg Leave to aſſure your Majeſty, that it is our firm and decided Reſolution, in our ſeveral Stations, to diſcountenance and reſiſt all Attempts that may be made to diſturb it.

The following Addreſs of the Mayor, Jurats and Commonalty of the Town and Port of New Romney, in the County of Kent, has been preſented to the King by Sir Elijah Impey, one of the Repreſentatives in Parliament for the ſaid Town, being introduced by the Lord of His Majeſty's Bedchamber in Waiting: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Jurats and Commonalty of the Town and Port of New Romney, in the County of Kent.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt loyal and faithful Subjects, the Mayor, Jurats and Commonalty of the Town and Port of New Romney, beg Leave, with due Submiſſion, to beſeech your Majeſty to accept our unfeigned Thanks for the Wiſdom and Care that you have ſhewn in cauſing to be iſſued and publiſhed your late Royal Proclamation for ſuppreſſing all unlawful Meetings and ſeditious Writings and Publications, tending to excite Tumults and Diſorders, and to raiſe groundleſs Jealouſies and Diſcontents in the Minds of your Majeſty's Subjects, which, in the End, may be attended with the moſt alarming and dangerous Conſequences.

We cannot but venerate at all Times our moſt excellent Conſtitution, both Civil and Religious, and are ſenſible that the Wealth, Happineſs and Proſperity of it, under Divine Providence, chiefly depends on a due Submiſſion to the Laws, a juſt Confidence in the Integrity and Wiſdom of Parliament, and in a zealous Attachment to the Government and Conſtitution of this Kingdom.

We think it therefore our Duty to aſſure your Majeſty, that we will uſe our utmoſt Endeavours, in our ſeveral Stations, to diſcourage all Proceedings whatever tending to produce Riots and Tumults within our Juriſdiction, and to ſuppreſs all ſeditious Writings and Publications that may be inſtrumental in inflaming the Minds of the People, as well as the Authors and Publiſhers thereof; and we are truly ſenſible of the many Bleſſings and Advantages we enjoy under the mild and auſpicious Government of your Majeſty.

Given under the Common Seal of our Corporation the 30th Day of June, 1792.

The following Addreſs of the Mayor, Burgeſſes and Inhabitants of the Borough and Town of Marlborough has been preſented to the King by the Honorable General Bruce, one of the Repreſentatives in Parliament for that Borough, being introduced by the Lord of His Majeſty's Bedchamber in Waiting: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

WE, your Majeſty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Burgeſſes and Inhabitants of the Borough and Town of Marlborough, beg Leave to return your Majeſty our humble and grateful Thanks for your Majeſty's Attention to the Peace and Happineſs of your People, moſt particularly evinced by the late Proclamation.

Deeply impreſſed with a Senſe of the ineſtimable Bleſſings we enjoy under a Conſtitution which has long been the Boaſt and Glory of Britons, and the Envy of ſurrounding Nations, we behold with Concern the inſidious Attempts which have been made to diſturb the Public Peace, and to involve the Nation in all the Horrors of Civil Diſcord, by the Publication of ſeditious and inflammatory Writings tending to ſubvert the good Order of Society.

While we deplore the Miſeries to which other Nations are reduced, by the Want of a due Submiſſion to the Laws, we are moſt thankful to Providence for having endued the great Body of the People of this Country with the good Senſe to diſtinguiſh and be ſatisfied with their own unexampled Proſperity and Happineſs, and the Reſolution to defend the invaluable Conſtitution which ſecures to them thoſe Bleſſings and Privileges, under the Government of a Prince ever anxious and watchful for the Liberties and Welfare of his Subjects, and whoſe greateſt Pride and Glory is to reign in the Hearts and Affections of a free and loyal People.

The following Addreſs of the Bailiff, Chief Steward, Capital Burgeſſes, and Principal Inhabitants of the Borough of Leominſter, has been preſented to the King by Richard Beckford and John Hunter, Eſqrs. the Repreſentativess in Parliament for the ſaid Borough, being introduced by the Lord of His Majeſty's Bedchamber in Waiting: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

WE, the Bailiff, Chief Steward, Capital Burgeſſes, and Principal Inhabitants of the Borough of Leominſter, do hereby expreſs our moſt grateful Thanks to your Majeſty for your moſt gracious Goodneſs in the Publication of your late Royal Proclamation of your late Royal Proclamation againſt ſeditious and inflammatory Writings, in order to preſerve the Peace and Tranquillity of this Kingdom from the Attempts of wicked and deſigning Men.

Fully ſenſible of the Bleſſings we enjoy under your Majeſty's auſpicious Reign, and the preſent Form and Adminiſtration of Government, we know not how to look forward to any other, which can more effectually ſecure the Happineſs and Proſperity of your Majeſty's Subjects; and, we truſt, that the innovating Spirit of Licentiouſneſs may never prevail in Oppoſition to a Syſtem, which has ſtood the Teſt of Ages, and woich muſt be the more approved the more it is is inveſtigated.

The following Addreſs of the Bailiffs and Inhabitants of the Borough of Aulceſter, in the County of Warwick, has been preſented to the King by Lord Viſcount Beauchamp, being introduced by the Lord of His Majeſty's Bedchamber in Waiting: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Bailiffs and Inhabitants of the antient Borough of Aulceſter, in the County of Warwick.

May it pleaſe your Majeſty,

WE, your Majeſty's loyal Subjects, the Bailiffs and Inhabitants of the antient Borough of Aulceſter, in the County of Warwick, beg Leave to approach the Throne, with the Aſſurances of our Attachment to your Majeſty's Perſon and Government.

We feel, in common with your Majeſty's other Subjects, the ſuperior Benefits which we derive from our

our preſent moſt happy Conſtitution. Enjoying every Security for our Perſons and our Properties, we diſtruſt every Theory which tends to undervalue Bleſſings, which we know to be our own, and relying on Experience as our ſureſt Guide, we deſire no Alteration in the well-balanced Syſtem of our Government, but what the Two Houſes of Parliament, in Concurrence with your Majeſty, may, from Time to Time, on the fulleſt Deliberation, think neceſſary.

Impreſſed with theſe Sentiments, we return your Majeſty our warmeſt Acknowledgements for your late Proclamation againſt ſeditious Writings. We trace, in this well-timed Exertion of Government, your paternal Anxiety to guard your Subjects againſt miſchievous Deluſions; and we rejoice that, inſtead of alienating their Affections, and ſcattering Diſcontent through this moſt happy Iſland, theſe inflammatory Publications have produced the oppoſite Effect, by exciting, in every Corner of it, the moſt ſteady Reſolution to ſupport our antient and revered Conſtitution againſt every Attempt to diſturb it.

That your Majeſty's Subjects may at all Times deſerve the Bleſſings which they now enjoy, of encreaſing Commerce and uninterrupted Tranquillity, by a dutiful Submiſſion to the Laws; and that your Majeſty may long reign over a free and united People, is our moſt cordial and anxious Wiſh.

The following Addreſs of the Mayor, Burgeſſes and Inhabitants of the Borough of Arundel, has been preſented to the King by Sir George Thomas, Bart. one of the Repreſentatives in Parliament for that Borough, being introduced by the Lord of His Majeſty's Bedchamber in Waiting: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Burgeſſes and Inhabitants of the Borough of Arundel.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Burgeſſes and Inhabitants of the ancient Borough of Arundel, truly ſenſible of your Majeſty's paternal Goodneſs, and conſtant Solicitude for the Happineſs and Welfare of your People, humbly beg Leave to approach your Majeſty with our warmeſt Thanks for your late Royal Proclamation, which evidently tends to, and we hope will effect, the Continuance of the Peace and Proſperity of your People, and totally ſuppreſs that malevolent Spirit of Faction and Sedition, which ſome evil-diſpoſed Perſons have, by publiſhing and diſperſing inflammatory Pamphlets, endeavoured to excite.

We conſider it as an eſſential Part of our Duty, at a Time when Jealouſies and Diſcontents are attempted to be raiſed in the Minds of your Subjects, and when Correſpondencies are entered into with Foreigners to ſubvert our happy Conſtitution, to declare our Abhorrence of ſuch dangerous Proceedings, and our firm Attachment to your Majeſty's Royal Perſon and Government.

With Hearts gratefully impreſſed for the full Enjoyment of all our Rights, we fervently join the Generality of your Subjects, in praying that you may long reign over a free, proſperous and loyal People.

Given under the Common Seal of the ſaid Borough of Arundel, and ſigned by the Mayor, at the Requeſt, and on the Behalf of the Burgeſſes and Inhabitants of the ſaid Borough.

Thomas Buſhby, Mayor.

Whitehall, July 12.

THE following Addreſſes having been delivered or tranſmitted to the Right Honorable Henry Dundas, His Majeſty's Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department, have been by him preſented to the King: Which Addreſſes His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Rector, Principal, Profeſſors, and Maſters of the Univerſity and King's College of Aberdeen.

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Rector, Principal, Profeſſors, and Maſters of the Univerſity and King's College of Aberdeen, beg Leave humbly to expreſs our Senſe of your Majeſty's paternal Care of the Liberty and Proſperity of your People, diſplayed at all Times, and ſeaſonably exerciſed in a Proclamation for checking the Spread of crude and factious Opinions, as unfavourable to true Liberty as to Order and juſt Authority, which, under the Shew of improving our excellent Conſtitution of Government, are calculated for ſubverting all Government, and introducing univerſal Anarchy.

Warmly attached to the Britiſh Conſtitution, and confident of it's Security under the Adminiſtration of a King who uniformly reveres it, we rejoice in the Approbation with which both Houſes of Parliament have received this Mark of your Royal Attention to the Happineſs of the Nation, and in the juſt Applauſe of it in which the Voice of all the Claſſes of the Subjects has been united.

Permit us to aſſure your Majeſty, that it has been and ſhall continue to be our Endeavour to inſtil into the Youth committed to our Care, along with the Principles of true Religion and uſeful Science and Learning, a Senſe of the Excellence of our happy Conſtitution, a Love of legal Subordination, Loyalty to a King who protects his People in all their Rights, and Attachment to your Royal Family; and that our earneſt Prayers ſhall never ceaſe to be put up for the Proſperity of your Reign, and for the Perpetuity of the Bleſſings which by it we enjoy, under a Succeſſion of Princes deſcended from your illuſtrious Houſe.

Signed in Name and by Appointment of the Univerſity, at King's College, the 2d Day of July, 1792, Alex. Burnett, Rector.

Jo. Chalmers, Principal.

[Tranſmitted by Alexander Burnett, Eſq; Rector.]

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Noblemen, Juſtices of the Peace, Commiſſioners of Supply, Freeholders, and other Gentlemen of the County of Wigton.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Noblemen, Juſtices of the Peace, Commiſſioners of Supply, Freeholders, and other Gentlemen of the County of Wigton, aſſembled, humbly beg Leave to offer to your Majeſty our unfeigned Expreſſions of Loyalty and Attachment to your Perſon and Government, at the ſame Time that we expreſs our Gratitude for your late gracious Proclamation againſt Writings tending to diſturb the Peace and good Government of your Majeſty's Subjects, and to endanger that Happineſs which, under Divine

Divine Providence and your Majeſty's paternal Care, we enjoy, unequalled by other Nations.

We alſo humbly beg Leave to aſſure your Majeſty of our zealous Attention to promote Order and inforce a ſtrict Obedience to the Laws, as well as our earneſt Wiſh that Providence may long preſerve your Majeſty to reign over an affectionate, free and happy People.

By Appointment of the Meeting,

Pat. Maitland, Præſes.

[Tranſmitted by Andrew M'Dowall, Eſq; Repreſentative in Parliament for that County.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, the Freeholders, Juſtices of the Peace, and Commiſſioners of Supply of the County of Clackmannan, humbly beg Leave to approach your Majeſty with the warmeſt Expreſſions of Gratitude for your paternal Care and Attention toward the Welfare of your Subjects, manifeſted in your late gracious Proclamation.

Senſible of the great and unexampled Bleſſings which we enjoy under the preſent Form of Government, it is our moſt anxious Wiſh, and it ſhall be our earneſt Endeavour, that it may be preſerved unaltered, and handed down unimpaired to our Poſterity. For this Purpoſe it ſhall be our Study, in our different Stations, to enforce Obedience to the Laws, to promote Order and Tranquillity, and to repreſs every Attempt, under whatever Form it may appear, to excite Diſcontent, Tumult, and Sedition in the Minds of the People.

That your Majeſty may long continue to reign over a free and happy People, and that they may continue to be ſenſible of theſe Bleſſings they now enjoy, is our earneſt Prayer.

By Appointment of the Meeting,

Geo. Abercromby, P.

[Tranſmitted by George Abercromby, Eſq;]

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

May it pleaſe your Majeſty,

WE, the Miniſters and Elders, met in the Preſbytery of Glaſgow, beg Leave to approach your Royal Preſence with Sentiments of Loyalty, Gratitude, and Affection.

Our Fathers rejoiced in the Revolution of 1688, which gave new Life and Energy to the Principles of Liberty. They rejoiced in the Acceſſion of the illuſtrious Houſe of Brunſwick to the Throne of theſe Kingdoms. In the worſt Times, as well as in the beſt, the Church, of which we are Members, has maintained it's Allegiance to the Sovereigns of your Royal Family with inviolable Fidelity; and we ceaſe not to praiſe Almighty God for a Conſtitution which guards the Principles of Liberty, and for a Government which protects the ſacred Rights of the People. Happy under your Majeſty's equitable and mild Adminiſtration, we behold on every Hand the bleſſed Fruits of Liberty and Loyalty, Proſperity and Peace.

We have heard, with the deepeſt Concern, that Attempts have been made to raiſe groundleſs Jealouſies and Diſcontents in the Minds of your Majeſty's Subjects, and we thankfully acknowledge, as a freſh Proof of your paternal Goodneſs, the iſſuing a Proclamation, by which we are warned to guard againſt all ſuch Attempts.

Deeply convinced that a Regard for our Holy Religion is the real Source of public and private Virtue, we ſhall exert ourſelves, in our ſacred Function, to cultivate in the Minds of the People under our Paſtoral Care thoſe Principles and Sentiments which tend to promote Peace and good Order in Society, Reverence for the Laws, and Loyalty to your Majeſty; repoſing full Confidence in the Wiſdom of the Britiſh Parliament and your Majeſty's Councils for preſervsng inviolate our excellent Conſtitution, and for thoſe Improvements of it which Experience may ſuggeſt.

While the great Body of the People with whom we are connected are ſenſible of the Security they enjoy under your auſpicious Government, and are exerting themſelves, in their ſeveral Purſuits, with Induſtry and Succeſs, we are perſuaded they will continue to preſerve, unimpaired, their Reſpect for the Conſtitution, and their Attachment to your Majeſty's Perſon and Government.

That your Majeſty may long reign over a free, peaceable and united People; that the Crown of theſe Realms may deſcend to your Majeſty's Poſterity with undiminiſhed Luſtre; and that your Royal Family in future Ages may reſemble your Majeſty in their Veneration for Religion, their Love of Juſtice, and Affection to their Subjects, are the fervent Prayers of,

May it pleaſe your Majeſty,
Your Majeſty's moſt faithful and moſt loyal Subjects, the Miniſters and Elders, met in the Preſbytery of Glaſgow.

Signed in our Name, in our Preſence, and at our Appointment, by Adam Forman. Moderator.

Glaſgow, July 4, 1792.

[Tranſmitted by William M'Dowall, Eſq; Repreſentative in Parliament for Glaſgow, &c.]

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the High Steward, Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, and Burgeſſes of the Borough of Wilton, in Common Hall aſſembled.

WE, your Majeſty's moſt loyal and dutiful Subjects, the High Steward, Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, and Burgeſſes of the Borough of Wilton, impelled by Sentiments of the pureſt Loyalty and Affection towards your Majeſty's Perſon, and by the moſt inviolable Attachment to the Conſtitution of this Country, think it our Duty to return your Majeſty our ſincereſt Thanks for your gracious Proclamation, ſo ſeaſonably calculated to obviate the Tendency of the late inflammatory Publications, which lead to the ſubverſion of all good Government.

We value and reſpect that Conſtitution, which is ſo well adapted to perpetuate the internal Peace and Proſperity of the Community; and enjoying, as we moſt gratefully acknowledge, ſo large a Portion of Happineſs and Security under your Majeſty's mild Government, we will, as far as we are able, unite with the Reſt of your faithful Subjects in the firmeſt Support of your Majeſty's Endeavours to protect the Conſtitution from every inſidious Deſign that may endanger the general Safety.

May your Majeſty, juſtly meriting the Affections of a loyal, united, and free People, long continue the the zealous Guardian of our preſent happy Eſtabliſhment.

Given under our Common Seal, at the Town-Hall of the ſaid Borough, this 9th Day of July, in the Thirty-ſecond Year of your Majeſty's Reign.

Richard C. Hoare, Mayor.

[Tranſmitted by the Right Hon. Lord Herbert.]

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's ever dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Recorder, Jurats, Common Council Men and Principal Inhabitants of your Majeſty's Town and Pariſh of Maidſtone, in the County of Kent, beg Leave to return our moſt hearty and ſincere Thanks for the freſh Inſtance we have received of your Majeſty's paternal Regard for the Welfare of your People, in iſſuing the late Proclamation againſt thoſe wicked, ſeditous and deteſtable Publications, which for ſome Time paſt have been, and, we are ſorry to add, ſtill continue to be induſtriouſly circulated throughout the Kingdom.

Permit us to teſtify our uniform and zealous Attachment to the eſtabliſhed Government and Conſtitution of our Country, and to ſay that we ſhall ever be ready to devote our Lives and Fortunes to their Preſervation.

Amidſt the Storms in which the ſurrounding Nations are involved, we are highly ſenſible of the peculiar Bleſſings and numerous Advantages which we now enjoy under the Protection and diſtinguiſhed Favour of Providence, by Means of that Conſtitution which ſecures to us our Lives and Property with our Civil and Religious Liberties; a Conſtitution unparalleled in the Hiſtory of Mankind.

Animated with ſuch ſuch Setiments, we are anxious to aſſure your Majeſty that we ſhall uſe our utmoſt Endeavours to prevent the Circulation of ſeditious Papers: That we ſhall diligently watch over every Attempt that may be made to leſſen the Attachment of your People to that Syſtem of Government which the Example of our Anceſtors, as well as our own Experience, hath taught us to love and revere: That we ſhall be not only extremely careful to preſerve thoſe Sentiments in our own Minds, but we ſhall be ever active and vigilant to maintain them in the Minds of the Reſt of the People; and that we ſhall conſtantly and actively promote, as far as in us lies, the ſalutary Purpoſes of your Majeſty's Proclamation, which, we are extremely happy to find, hath received the ſolemn Sanction of both Houſes of Parliament.

[Tranſmitted by John Morgan, Eſq; Recorder of that Town.]

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Provoſt, Magiſtrates, and Town Council of the Royal Burgh of Fortroſe.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Provoſt, Magiſtrates and Town Council of Fortroſe, beg Leave to approach the Throne with ſincere Profeſſions of ſteady Attachment to your ſacred Perſon and illuſtrious Family, and to that excellent Conſtitution as eſtabliſhed and confirmed at the Revolution, by which we, in common with our Fellow Subjects, do enjoy as perfect a Degree of Civil and Religious Liberty, as can be poſſeſſed in any State of Society; which has raiſed us to a Degree of Glory and Proſperity unexampled among the contemporary Nations of Europe.

Prizing theſe invaluable Privileges as we ſhould, we obſerved, with Abhorrence, the Attempts which have been made by ſome late Publications of a ſeditious and inflammatory Nature, to render your faithful People diſcontented.

We offer to your Majeſty our moſt grateful Acknowledgments for having iſſued your Royal Proclamation againſt the Authors and Publiſhers of them; and we are determined to uſe our conſtant Endeavours for preſerving, in the Minds of our Fellow Citizens that Loyalty to your Majeſty, that Love and Reverence for the Conſtitution, by which they are at preſent actuated, and our ardent Deſire is to tranſmit the ſame unimpaired to Poſterity.

Signed in Preſence, and by Appointment of the Magiſtrates and Town Council, Hugh Munro, Provoſt.

[Tranſmitted by Sir Hugh Munro, Bart.]

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

The humble Addreſs of the Provoſt, Baillies and Council of the City of Brechin, in Council aſſembled.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Provoſt, Baillies and Council of the City of Brechin, beg Leave to approach the Throne with Gratitude to your Majeſty for your late gracious Proclamation againſt ſeditious and inflammatory Publications, which, if not ſuppreſſed, may be productive of the moſt alarming and dangerous Conſequences.

We beg Leave to aſſure your Majeſty that we venerate the Conſtitution of this Kingdom, as eſtabliſhed and confirmed at the Revolution, becauſe it connects the Honour of the Sovereign with the Liberty and Happineſs of the Subject; and therefore we moſt unfeignedly give your Majeſty the ſtrongeſt Aſſurances that we ſhall ever zealouſly concur in Support of ſuch juſt and neceſſary Meaſures as may beſt enable your Majeſty to ſupport our happy Conſtitution.

At the ſame Time we offer our Thanks to your Majeſty for your late gracious Proclamation, we alſo beg Leave to expreſs our ſincere and ardent Wiſhes that your Majeſty may long continue to reign in the Hearts of a free and a happy People, and to ſhare the Bleſſing of domeſtic Felicity with your illuſtrious Conſort and Royal Iſſue is the ſincere Prayer of,

May it pleaſe your Majeſty,

Your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects,

The Provoſt, Baillies and Council of the City of Brechin.

Signed in our Preſence, and by our Appointment, this 5th Day of July, 1792 Years.

John Smith, Provoſt.

[Tranſmitted by Alexander Allardyce, Eſq;]

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, Bailiffs, and Principal Burgeſſes of Borough of Kidwelly, in the County of Carmarthen, in Common Hall aſſembled.

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, Bailiffs, and Principal Burgeſſes of the Borough of Kidwelly aforeſaid, in Common Hall aſſembled, preſume to addreſs your Majeſty on your Majeſty's late moſt gracious Proclamation.

Under the fulleſt Conviction that the Bleſſings of our preſent happy Conſtitution in Church and State cannot be preſerved without a due Submiſſion to the Laws, and a ſtrict Attention to Order and Regularity, we look with Indignation and Contempt on all Endeavours to ſubſtitute Diſquiet and Jealouſies for the true Spirit of Liberty, and to depreciate the Excellence of our Conſtitution and Government; and we regard with Gratitude and Reſpect this additional Proof of your Majeſty's Attention to the Happineſs of your Majeſty's People.

Impreſſed with theſe Sentiments, and profeſſing the warmeſt Attachment to your Majeſty's Perſon, Family and Government, we pray that, in the Preſervation of your Majeſty's Life, we may long enjoy the Bleſſings of Peace and Tranquillity under the Guidance of your Majeſty's Councils, to which we are determined to give Energy and Effect to the utmoſt of our Power.

Given under our Common Seal this 26th Day of June, 1792.

[Tranſmitted by the Hon. George Rice, Repreſentative in Parliament for the County of Carmarthen.]
